

Clinical Practice

Drawing on our experience in clinical practice, we help you establish strong governance frameworks and efficient quality management systems, ensuring better consumer care and improved risk management.

We understand the challenges of delivering clinical care in the highly regulated aged care industry. Our practical methodologies are designed to streamline your operations, mitigate risks, and help you to maintain consistently high standards of care and service for your consumers.

We guide you towards better practices through:

Assessment of current practices.

Policy and procedure review or development.

Training workshops.

Performance monitoring.

Take pride in your success

Katrina Ong
Partner

We support aged care providers with:

Policy and Procedure Review or Development

We guide you through the development or review of clinical practice policies and procedures, often informed by our compliance assurance audit.

Clinical Governance Support

We help you establish strong clinical governance frameworks, ensuring they are effective, compliant and designed to facilitate high standards of clinical care.

Staff Training

We provide bespoke training for boards and executive teams, educating and informing on clinical governance, risk management, and continuous quality improvement.

Why partner with Pride Aged Living?

- With hands-on clinical and management experience in aged care, we bring a realistic and knowledgeable perspective to clinical practice.
- We support the implementation of clinical practice methodologies driving reduced risk and best practice consumer care.
- We have contemporary experience in existing quality advisory bodies.
- Our team includes consultants who are graduates of the Australian Institute of Company Directors (AICD).

I highly recommend Pride Aged Living to any aged care provider needing assistance. They have valuable knowledge and expertise in this area and are very responsive when assistance is required.
