

Sustainable Human Resources

Human resourcing is a finely tuned balancing act of risk management and commercial sustainability. We provide operating models to facilitate business sustainability and improved resident outcomes.

We independently assess your facility resourcing and corporate structure, enabling you to balance service delivery with financial viability and consumer care. With our help, you build an efficient structure that aligns with your business objectives.

You'll achieve optimum operational performance and reduced risk with:

The review and redesign of your workforce structures.

Analysis of your current AN-ACC funding and care minutes.

Identified opportunities for increased efficiencies.

Expert support for change implementation.

Take pride in your success

JC Yap
Principal Consultant

We support aged care providers with:

Facility Resourcing

We provide an independent, evidence-based assessment of your current service delivery structure with recommendations to achieve best-practice operating models that facilitate business sustainability and improved resident outcomes.

Corporate Resourcing

We provide an independent, evidence-based assessment of your current corporate structure with recommendations to balance service delivery with financial viability and consumer care.

Implementation

We provide expert support for change implementation, helping you build an efficient structure that aligns with your business objectives while minimising disruption to care services.
